Subject: [STAFF] Indiana Phase 3

Good evening everyone,

As part of Governor Holcomb's "Back on Track" plan to reopen Indiana, many counties, including Pulaski and Starke Counties, will move to Phase 3 tomorrow (Friday). Cass, Lake, and Marion Counties will move to Phase 3 on June 1st.

Please click on the link below for a detailed breakdown of what is opening and what restrictions remain in place.

Some highlights include:

1. Social Gatherings may have up to 100 people, provided social distancing can be maintained
2. Retail outlets may increase capacity to 75%
3. Restaurants remain at 50% capacity – Bars and Taverns remain closed
4. Fitness Gyms can now open with restrictions and social distancing guidelines
5. Playgrounds, Basketball Courts, Tennis Courts can now open as long as social distancing can be maintained
6. All Hoosiers are strongly encouraged to continue wearing masks

For more information, visit the link above or the "Back on Track" website at www.backontrack.in.gov.

With the holiday weekend upcoming, we hope you can enjoy time with friends and family. Still, please remember to maintain social distancing as much as possible, wear facial coverings when warranted and continue to practice good hand hygiene. And if you begin to feel sick or if you believe you have been exposed to someone with COVID-19, please speak with your manager as soon as possible.

Thanks,
Brian
